ALBATROS

Some children like to visit toy shops,
others prefer candy shops,
and there are some who like going to parks.
But a little girl named Patti loves to visit music shops.
One very special day, her dad took her to the greatest music shop in town . . .

“Hello!” Patti said to the shop clerk and asked,
“Excuse me, sir, where can I find the bass guitars, please?”
“Oh, those are up a floor,” he said and pointed to the stairs.

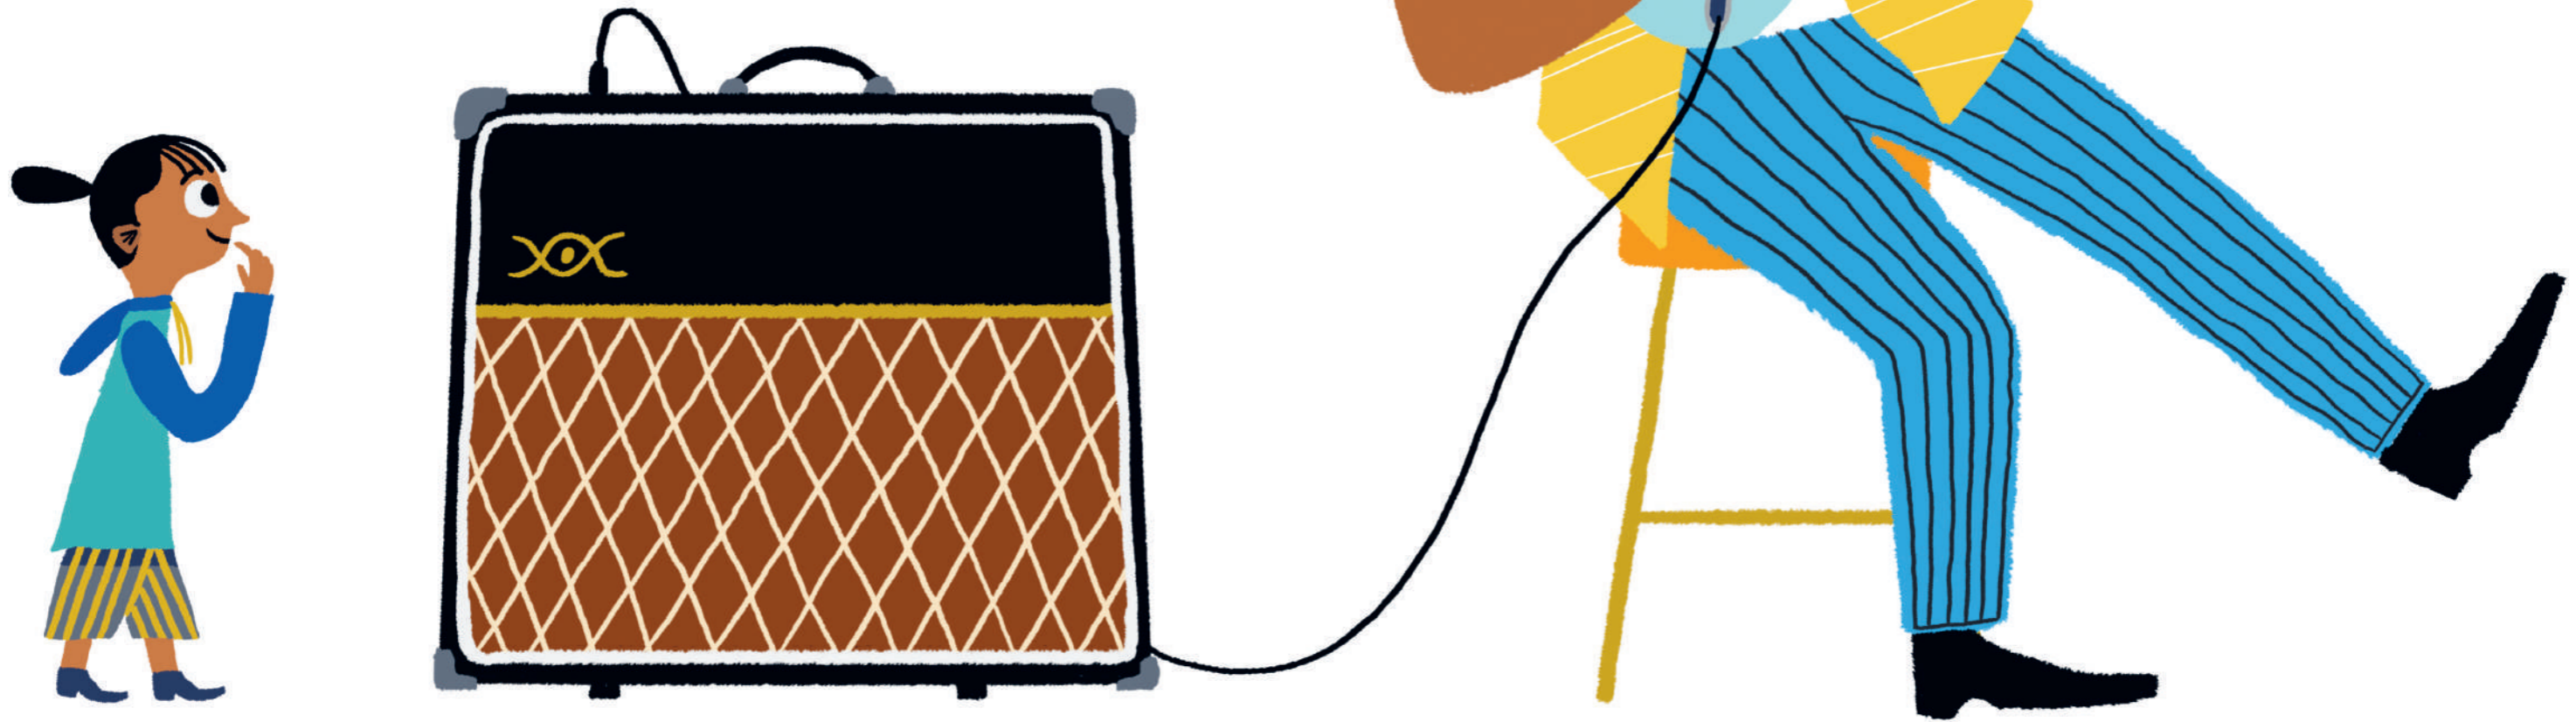

On the way to the stairs,
Patti and her dad saw

many interesting instruments—guitars,
banjos, and mandolins.

Imagine all the beautiful instruments;
even Patti's dad could not resist playing one guitar.

Patti loved it so much, she also wanted to try!

So Patti tried playing:

The electric guitar

The maracas

The piano

The pan flute

The triangle

The trumpet

The harp

The tambourine

The harmonica

The theremin

The balalaika

She also tried on different kinds of headphones.

The tuba

The xylophone

The cymbals

And the drums.

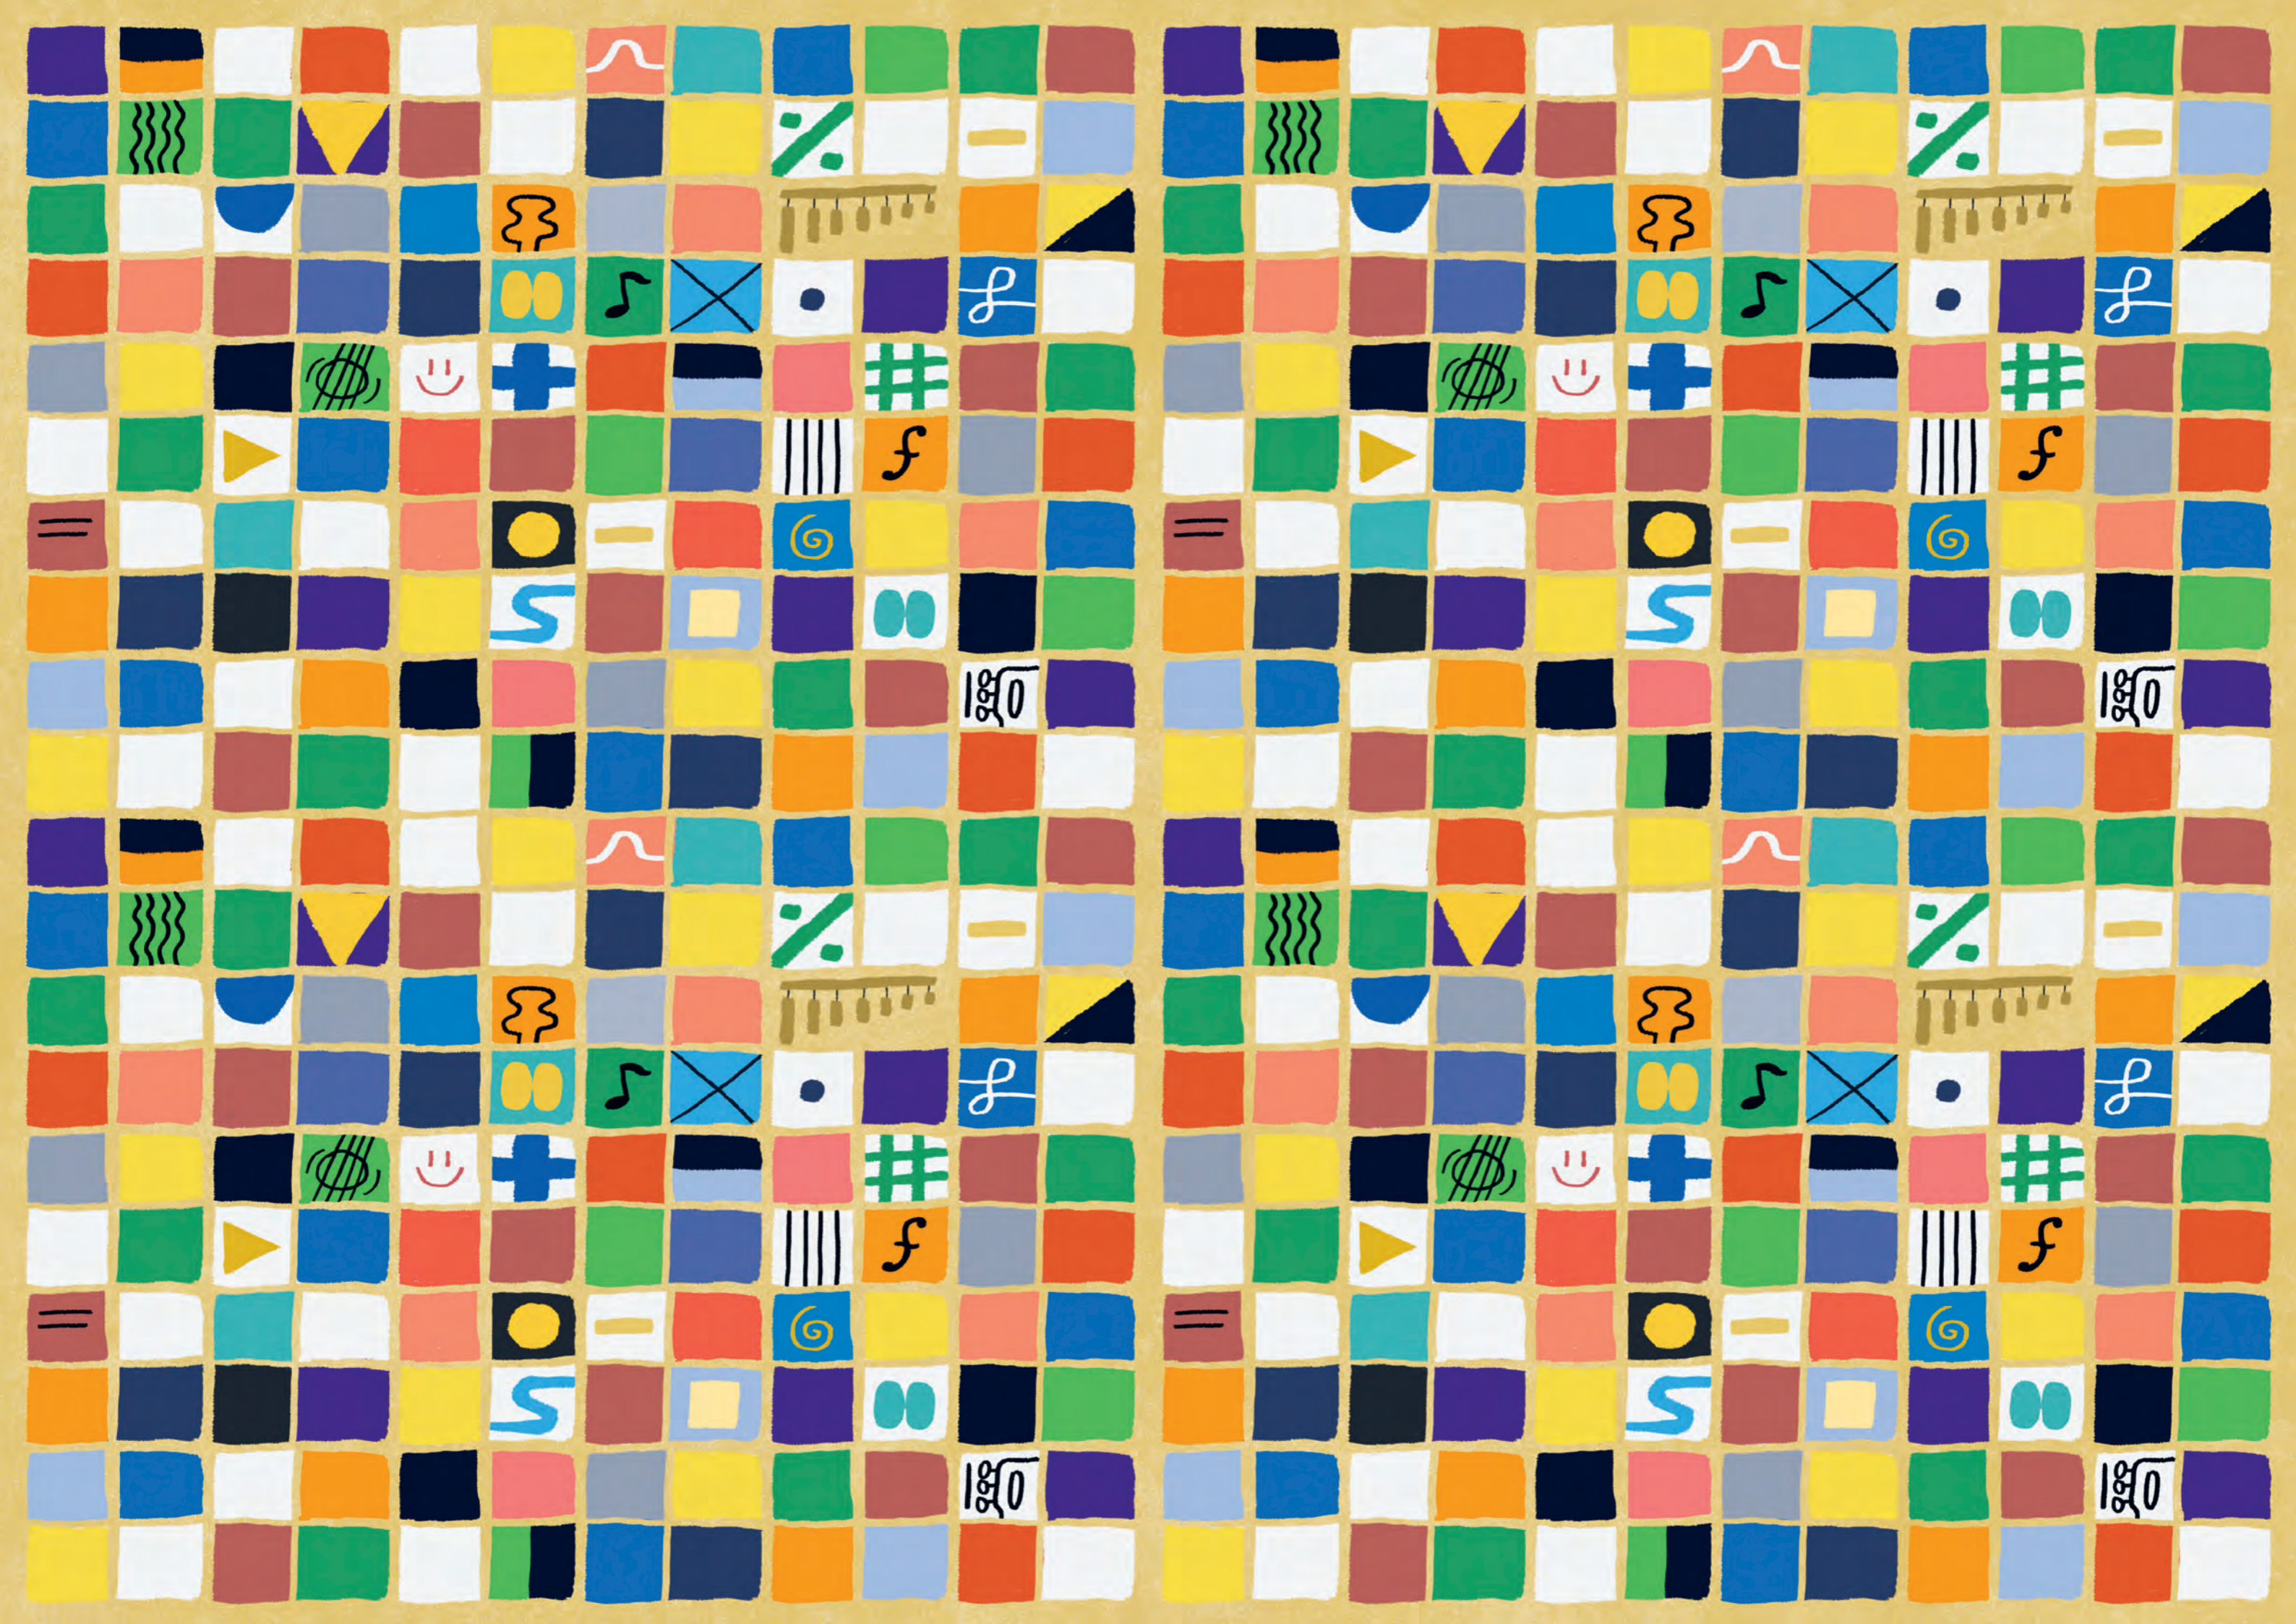

Patti wanted to play all the instruments!
Her favorite was the bass guitar.

There it was—a beautiful red bass guitar!
