Travel around the world's most bustling cities!

LONDON

It's raining again—no surprise to Londoners. Nobody leaves home without a hat, cap, or umbrella—just look at Sherlock Holmes, a palace guard, even the Queen! But if you do get wet, don't despair—you'll warm up nicely at the traditional five o'clock tea.

SYDNEY

Visit the ultra-modern Australian city of Sydney once and you'll be returning in your mind over and over—like a human boomerang. You'll fondly recall concerts at the Opera House, sleek bridges, delicious avocado toast, and swimming in a pool where the surface meets the ocean. A single dive will get you there! You can practice your jumps, especially the high and long ones, at the local zoo—just copy the kangaroos!

We gratefully acknowledge that Sydney stands upon the homelands of the Eora and the Dharug, Indigenous peoples who have an enduring connection to this place despite being forcibly displaced by European colonization.

NEW YORK

The city that never sleeps—and nor do the lights of its skyscrapers. Who'd bother sleeping when there's so much going on? Wall Street financiers barely have time for milkshakes before their meetings. In the evening, they hurry off to see a favorite musical on Broadway.

RIO DE JANEIRO

Let's hit the road to Carnival! We're heading to Rio, where the toucan feathers are just as colorful as the costumes of the lively samba dancers. You'll be joining in too—it's contagious and the steps are easy. After a day of dancing, there's no better way to quench your thirst than with some delicious coconut water.
