LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD

Albatros

One day, Little Red Riding Hood went to visit her grandmother.

In the forest, she met a Big Bad Wolf.

While Little Red Riding Hood was picking flowers, the wolf ran to her grandmother's house . . .

. . . and ate the poor grandmother!

He disguised himself as her. When Little Red Riding Hood arrived, she gasped:

“Why are your eyes, ears, and mouth so big, Grandma?”

“All the better to eat you with!” replied the wolf.

And he ate
Little Red
too.

The wolf soon fell asleep.
Luckily, a hunter saw
what had happened.

He cut the wolf's belly open and rescued the girl and her grandmother.

Little Red Riding Hood was happy to see her mom again.
And the wolf? Well, he ran far,
far away.
