ARE WE READY FOR A PET?

READ & SPOT

The next day, the family visited the local pet shop in search of the perfect family pet. Among the guinea pigs, hamsters, and chinchillas, one furry animal stood out the most: a cute rabbit with soft fur and big floppy ears. Rabbits need a balanced diet of straw, fresh vegetables, pellets, and water, the shop owner explained. Sam and Emma realized taking care of a pet was no easy task and required a lot of responsibility.

A playful retriever named Buddy caught Sam and Emma's attention at the dog shelter. He ran up to the children, wagging his tail and begging them to throw a ball. Sam and Emma learned that owning a dog comes with a lot of responsibility. A dog would need a collar, a leash, a bed, toys, nutritious food, regular exercise, and plenty of love and attention. The children were excited, but Mom and Dad worried about how much time a dog would require. The kids wondered if their parents would adopt Buddy for the family.

While visiting family friends, Sam and Emma fell in love with a pair of cute kittens. Sam and Emma learned from their friends that cats need a balanced diet of wet and dry cat food, regular grooming, and a litter box that must be cleaned daily. They would also need to buy a scratching post for the cat to scratch their claws on. Sam and Emma were excited and played with the cats for the rest of the evening. They were worried about cleaning the litter box, however.
